REALIZING YOUR TRUE PURPOSE AND JOY
PSALM 73:25-28

MAIN THOUGHT & OUTLINE

Living your life for God alone both glorifies him and brings you the greatest joy.

- I. Realize He's All You Want in Life (v.25)
- II. Realize He's All You Need in Life (v.26)
- III. Realize He's All the Good in Life (v.27-28)

QUESTIONS FOR REFLECTION & DISCUSSION

1. Have you wondered how both parts of WSC 1's answer fit together in practice? Where have you found God's glory and your joy in conflict?
2. When you look around you, does Asaph's struggle feel familiar to you? What about the resolution to his struggle?
3. Is God all you want in life? Is he all you need? What would strengthen your commitment to desiring God alone?
4. How did Christ fulfill this "chief end" in his own life and death? How can we live as he lived?
