PASSING DOWN GOD’S GOOD WISDOM
PROVERBS 4:1-9

MAIN THOUGHT & OUTLINE

The greatest possession you can pass down to your children is God's good wisdom that has been passed down to you.

- I. God’s Good Wisdom Passed Down to You (v.1-4a)
- II. God’s Good Wisdom Passed Down to Your Children (v.4b-9)

QUESTIONS FOR REFLECTION & DISCUSSION

1. Prayerfully consider how you are obeying this command and should obey this command. If you’re a father, how does this command intimidate? Where does your help come from?
2. Mothers, how can you best support and encourage your husband’s work in this area?
3. Brothers and sisters, if you don’t have children, or don’t have children at home anymore, how can you obey this exhortation in your church family, or in your extended family?
4. Boys and girls, how can you pray for your dad’s faithfulness to pass on to you the wisdom of the gospel? How else can you encourage him in this work?
