THE GOSPEL IS FOR SINNERS
MARK 2:13-17

MAIN THOUGHT & OUTLINE

By reaching out to tax collectors and sinners, Jesus reveals the intended audience for his gospel message.

- I. Jesus Reaches Out to Tax Collectors and Sinners (v.13-15)
- II. Jesus Reveals the Intended Audience for His Gospel Message (v.16-17)

QUESTIONS FOR REFLECTION & DISCUSSION

- 1. What amazes you most about God's work of salvation in your life?
- 2. Who have you put out of reach for Jesus Christ? Even in your prayer life?
- 3. How does this passage speak to our need to reach all people with the gospel? Even when the government puts certain people off limits like in the recent "conversion therapy ban"? What must our response be?
- 4. What attitudes of self-righteous pride does this passage reveal in your own heart? How must you address this?
