BLESS THE LORD WHO SAVES
LUKE 1:67-80

MAIN THOUGHT & OUTLINE

Bless the Lord for visiting his people in Christ to save us for His service and for shining salvation's light upon us, exactly as he promised.

- I. Bless the Lord for Visiting His People to Save Them to Serve Him (v.67-75)
- II. Bless the Lord for Shining Salvation's Light on His People (v.76-80)

QUESTIONS FOR REFLECTION & DISCUSSION

1. What parallels have we discussed between Israel's rescue from Egypt and our rescue from sin? What other parallels can you draw?
2. Do you live as someone who has not just been rescued from something but who has also been rescued to something? How would this be seen in your life?
3. Boys & girls – what does it mean to “bless the Lord”? For what should you bless the Lord?
