THE CERTAIN HOPE OF YOUR RESURRECTION
1 CORINTHIANS 15:12-23

MAIN THOUGHT & OUTLINE

You can have certain hope that because Christ rose, you will too in Christ.

- I. No Hope in What Is False (v.12-19)
- II. Certain Hope in the Truth (v.20-23)

QUESTIONS FOR REFLECTION & DISCUSSION

1. What can we learn from Paul about apologetics (i.e. defending false claims with the truth)?
2. How does Paul's unpacking of hopelessness emphasize the hope of what is really true?
3. How does this text help us have hope in this life already? How does it help you in your present need?
4. Boys & girls – why do you need to know about the resurrection, even though you're still young? Do you ever want to live without this hope?
